

The Hotel Atrium Mandurah

The Hotel Atrium was designed by Parry and Rosenthal Pty Ltd and is representative of 1970s modern architecture and is a highly visible and well-known landmark. Its construction at the commencement of the 1980s was symbolic of prosperity of the state and reflects the importance of the tourist industry in Mandurah. The hotel opened with 117 rooms in January of 1983.

The Atrium Hotel Mandurah WA is the perfect choice for your holiday accommodation. Our spacious and comfortable rooms provide all the amenities you need to make sure you have a comfortable stay. Enjoy a delicious breakfast or dinner at our on-site restaurant, or visit our bar open daily offering a selection of tap and packaged beers, tea, coffee and cocktails.

The hotel is also conveniently located within walking distance to Dolphin Quay, Mandurah Performing arts centre and Reading Cinema, so you can enjoy all that Mandurah has to offer. On-site car parking is available for easy access to and from the hotel, making it a great place to stay for business or pleasure. The Atrium Hotel offers guests a range of facilities to ensure that their stay is comfortable and enjoyable.
